

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

The ACA: Experiences in Health Care Coverage and Access

Dirksen Senate Office Building, Room G50

Wednesday, July 1, 2015

PETER V. LEE is executive director of Covered California. Mr. Lee reports directly to the Covered California Board and serves at its pleasure. Most recently, he served in the Obama Administration, helping establish the new Center for Medicaid and Medicaid Innovation. Mr. Lee has served as the director of delivery system reform at the federal Health and Human Services' Office of Health Reform. Mr. Lee led the Pacific Business Group on Health (PBGH), first as CEO and then as the executive director of national health policy. Prior to PBGH, he was the executive director of the Center for Health Care Rights, a consumer advocacy organization based in Los Angeles.

KEVIN LUCIA is a senior research fellow and project director at the Center on Health Insurance Reforms (CHIR) at Georgetown University's Health Policy Institute. He directs policy research and analysis of federal and state laws and programs related to private health insurance and the implementation of the Affordable Care Act. Mr. Lucia provides expertise and prepares resources to inform regulators, policymakers and other stakeholder groups on issues related to access, affordability and adequacy of private health insurance. His research is supported by government agencies, private foundations and organizations representing consumers and patients. Prior to CHIR, Mr. Lucia led the state compliance division within the Office of Oversight, Center for Consumer Information and Insurance Oversight (CCIIO), Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. He serves as a board member and chair of the Insurance Market Committee of the Health Benefit Exchange Authority for the District of Columbia. Mr. Lucia holds his JD from The George Washington University Law School and an MPH from Northeastern University.

TIMOTHY STOLTZFUS JOST is an emeritus professor at the Washington and Lee University School of Law. He is a coauthor of a casebook, "Health Law," used widely throughout the United States in teaching health law and now in its seventh edition. He is also the author of "Health Care at Risk," "A Critique of the Consumer-Driven Movement," "Health Care Coverage Determinations: An International Comparative Study," "Readings in Comparative Health Law" and "Bioethics," and many articles and book chapters on health care regulation and comparative health law and policy. Mr. Jost has written numerous monographs on legal issues in health care reform for national organizations and blogs regularly for Health Affairs, where he is a contributing editor, on regulatory issues. Mr. Jost is a consumer representative to the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and a member of the Institute of Medicine.

BRIAN WEBB is manager of health policy and legislation for the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC). The NAIC represents insurance regulators in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and five U.S. territories. Before joining the NAIC, Mr. Webb worked on Medicare and Medicaid policy for the BlueCross BlueShield Association and, prior to that, was the assistant vice president for legislation for the then-Federation of American Health Systems. Mr. Webb began working in Washington, DC on health care policy in 1988 as a legislative aide for Congressman Bill Thomas. After six years with Congressman Thomas, he worked five years in California Governor Pete Wilson's Washington, DC, office as health and welfare aide and deputy director. Mr. Webb has a master's degree in public administration from the George Washington University and a bachelor's degree from BIOLA University in California.