

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

Medicare Advantage in a Changing Health System

December 5, 2014

ARIELLE MIR is the Assistant Director of the Medicare Payment Advisory Commission (MedPAC). In this role, she is the day-to-day liaison between MedPAC and the Congress, government agencies and other stakeholder groups. Prior to joining MedPAC, Ms. Mir was a Presidential Management Fellow at the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, where she assisted the Director of the Center for Drug and Health Plan Choice in administering the Medicare Advantage and Prescription Drug Benefits. Previously, she held positions at the nonprofit Reproductive Health Technologies Project, the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, and the House Committee on Government Reform and Oversight. Ms. Mir holds a Masters in Public Affairs from the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University and a Bachelor's degree from the University of Chicago.

MARK MILLER Ph.D. is the Executive Director of the Medicare Payment Advisory Commission (MedPAC), a nonpartisan federal agency that advises the U.S. Congress on Medicare payment, quality, and access issues. Dr. Miller has more than 20 years of health policy experience and has held several policy, research, and management positions in health care, including Assistant Director of Health and Human Resources (HHR) at the Congressional Budget Office; Deputy Director of Health Plans at the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Health Financing Branch Chief at the Office of Management and Budget, and Senior Research Associate at the Urban Institute. He earned a Ph.D. in public policy analysis from the State University of New York at Binghamton.

MARSHA GOLD Sc.D is a senior fellow emeritus with Mathematica Policy Research and a consultant. She is a nationally known expert on health care delivery and financing, especially in managed care and public programs such as Medicare and Medicaid. Her expertise covers trends in the organization and financing of medical care and their implications for access to care. She has studied Medicare Advantage and its predecessor programs for over 15 years, with support from a variety of organizations, including the Henry J. Kaiser Family Foundation. Dr. Gold has published in a variety of peer-reviewed journals, has sat on a number of expert and technical panels, and serves as an expert resource for policymakers, other researchers, and the media. She is on the editorial board of national journals, including Health Affairs and Health Services Research, and she has served on the board of directors of AcademyHealth. She has a doctorate in health services/evaluation research from Harvard University, School of Public Health.

ROBERT MARGOLIS, MD, is Co-Chairman of the Board, DaVita HealthCare Partners and CEO Emeritus of HealthCare Partners, LLC. Dr. Margolis served as the managing partner and CEO of HealthCare Partners from the formation of the company in 1992 through February 2014. He also serves as Co-Chairman of the DaVita HealthCare PartnersSM Board of Directors. Dr. Margolis was a founding partner and the managing partner of HealthCare Partners' predecessor, California Primary Physicians Medical Group. Under Dr. Margolis' leadership, HealthCare Partners has become a highly respected and innovative physician-owned and operated medical group, independent physician association, and management services organization. Dr. Margolis has been on the leading edge of the managed care industry for more than 30 years. He is a much sought-after spokesperson because of his vast experience in integrated delivery systems and physician practice management. Dr. Margolis serves on the Board of several prestigious healthcare organizations. He is one of seven board members appointed by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors and UC Regents to the Board of Directors of the new Martin Luther King, Jr., Hospital, and is also on the Board of the MLK Foundation. Dr. Margolis is board certified in Internal Medicine and Medical Oncology. While practicing medicine, he was an active member of the American College of Physicians and the American Society of Clinical Oncology. He is a graduate of Rutgers University (high honors – Henry Rutgers Scholar), and the Duke University Medical School (AOA) and served a fellowship at the National Cancer Institute.

(over)