POST ELECTION SYMPOSIUM

November 17-18, 2020 | Virtual Event

REFLECTING ON WHAT'S NEXT

As the United States continues to grapple with the devastation of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the topic of health care has once again emerged at the forefront of the 2020 presidential election. This virtual symposium will gather a range of experts after election day to discuss how the results could influence the health policy agenda in 2021 and beyond. Panel presentations and keynote speakers will provide insight into what's ahead for health policy in the administration, Congress, federal courts, and the states.

We invite you to support the Alliance for Health Policy as we host this exclusive, two-day event. By convening non-partisan conversations such as these, we commit ourselves to support and shape a better future for health and health care solutions. Join the conversation today.
