What's one moment in your career that shaped how you think about health policy?

The failure of Clinton Health Reform in the 1990s.

Who was a mentor or role model for you, and what did they teach you?

Roger Feldman, University of Minnesota:
Getting an estimate of policy change from little to poor prior research.

What is your proudest policy achievement?

While working in the White House and in coordination with HHS and slain United Healthcare CEO Brian Thompson, moving $30 billion to 300,000+ providers on April 9th, 2020, overnight, to a largely shut-down U.S. health system during the COVID-19 pandemic.
